CHAPTER 284.

AN ACT continuing the interim committee on the pollution of the boundary waters of the upper Mississippi river, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The interim investigating committee appointed under joint resolution No. 17 of the legislative session of 1925 to investigate the problem of the pollution of boundary waters between the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin, which committee was continued by joint resolution No. 68 of the legislative session of 1927, is hereby continued and there is appropriated from any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to enable such committee to complete its work, but not to exceed five hundred dollars, and the unexpended balance of the appropriation made to such committee by chapter 90 of the laws of 1929. Payment under this appropriation shall be made upon certification of the chairman of the committee.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
